Report on Extra-Mural talk on “Morality in Education”

An Extra-mural talk on “Morality in Education” was organized by IQAC of Nayagarh Autonomous College, Nayagarh on 21st November 2019 at 11am in the New Conference Hall of the college. Swami Sadananda Saraswati, Regional Head, Chinmaya Mission Bhubaneswar attended the programme as the Chief Speaker and the meeting was presided over by Major Manjushree Pati, Principal, Nayagarh Autonomous College, Nayagarh. In this meeting, faculty members, staff and students participated in the discussion in the interactive session.

The meeting started with invocation by Swami Sadananda Saraswati. Prof. Rabindra Sahoo chanted Vedic Mantra at the time of lighting the candles before lord Jagannath. Guests were invited to the dais by Prof. Abhjit Panda. Prof. Pramod Kumar Dash introduced the guest speaker and gave a very brief introduction on the topic.

Then Swamiji delivered his talk. Swamiji said that education itself is morality. Without morality education is misnomer. He remarked that only human beings need education because man is such animal who is gifted of freedom and intelligence and at the same time man is free to misuse his freedom. Animals act by their instinct. Swamiji made a distinction between training and educating. Training cannot make one moral. It can at the best make us more polite, polished, civilized and mature in manners. Swamiji said, morality is a question of understanding, not training. Nobody can be trained to be moral. Human beings can understand the moral values, moral conflicts, can make distinction between good and bad, right and wrong, on the basis of value paradigms. Again he remarked man is the only animal who can feel happy and sorrow. Animals desire according to their biological necessities. But human beings desire by psychological propensities. Therefore man suffers from having infinite desires and spoils his entire life to fulfil the unfulfilled desires. That leads to despair and frustration. That leads to anger, greed, infatuation, violence and mental disorder which are clear symptoms of unhappiness. Swamiji made a four-fold distinction of human desires.

Some people desire to be happy at the cost of other's sufferings. Some people desire others to be unhappy if they are unhappy. Some people desire universal happiness in which all should be happy including himself. And lastly, some people desire only the happiness of others even at the cost of their own pain and sufferings. Accordingly there are four types of human characters. In this paradigm the last one is treated as the noblest moral value. He emphasized on the practical implementation of the values in our day to day life, profession and public interaction.

Some pertinent questions were asked by the students and the staff members present in the meeting. Swamiji explained all questions by emphasizing on positive thinking. He said positive thinking and positive attitude can heal all psychological problems of human beings.

After that, the president, the Principal madam, delivered her presidential address by summing up the key notes addressed by Swamiji. This was followed by giving a token of appreciation to Swamiji by Pricipal. A sapling was presented to Swamiji by the Eco-Club of the college.

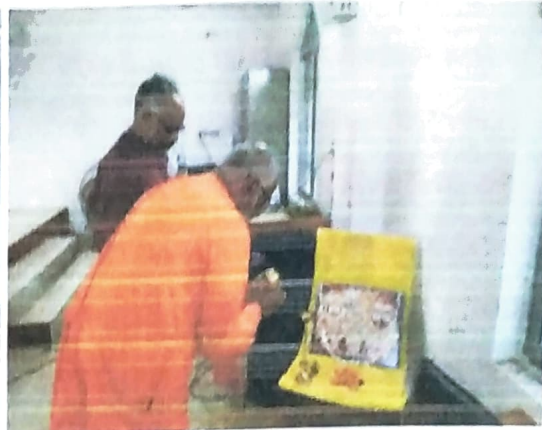

The meeting ended successfully with vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Sanjukta Mishra, Department of Physics.
